Spring 2020 LIVE-ON-LINE Chinese Brush Painting with Mayee

- Friday 6-9pm PT 5/15, 5/22, 5/5, 5/12
- Saturday 9:30am-12:30pm PT 5/9, 5/23, 6/6, 6/13

MATERIALS LIST

Chinese (or Asian) Brush Painting uses Chinese brushes, rice paper, and ink. Watercolors are also used. However, watercolor paper and watercolor brushes are NOT traditionally used.

For best results, Chinese Brush Painting materials may be purchased online from Oriental Art Supply (OAS). Alternatively, feel free to use your own Chinese Brush Painting supplies or obtain comparable items elsewhere.

1) Brush/Color Sets
For first-time students, CHOOSE ONE of THREE OPTIONS. Click the “Description +" button for details.

- SET A: Western/Chinese Set (click link)—Recommended
- SET B: Traditional Chinese Color Set (click link)—Not convenient for class use
- SET C: Budget-friendly Chinese Watercolor Tube Set (click link)

2) Assorted Paper Roll (click link)
Contains the following sheets for this class:
- 6 pcs Premium “Jade Plate” Double Xuan (approx 18”x27”)
- 6 pcs “Imperfect” Xuan (approx 18”x27”)

3) Accessories from Home OR OAS Accessories Set (click link)
- White felt or cloth (24”x36”)
- Water bowl (approx. 3” deep)
- Fine mist spray bottle
- Ink dish (or sauce dish)
- White plate/saucer (not in OAS accessories set)
- Paper towels (not in accessories set)
- Watercolor palette (included in brush/color sets; not in OAS accessories set)

4) Additional OPTIONAL Items

- Wash Brush (click link) — any size 3” or smaller
- 5ml Winsor Newton Prussian Blue (click link) or any bright blue